

Biography

Holly Shill, MD

Director, Muhammad Ali Parkinson Center and Movement Disorder Program
Barrow Neurological Institute
Dignity Health, St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center
Phoenix, AZ

Holly Shill, MD, is the Director of Muhammad Ali Parkinson Center and Movement Disorder Program at Barrow Neurological Institute, Dignity Health, St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix, AZ. She is a professor in the Department of Neurology, University of Arizona College of Medicine - Phoenix. She is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

Dr. Shill received her medical degree from the University of Arizona, College of Medicine. She completed her internship at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Internal Medicine. Dr. Shill completed her residency in neurology and a fellowship in movement disorders at Barrow Neurological Institute. She then served as a clinical fellow at the National Institutes of Health, studying movement disorders. She has received numerous awards over the years including becoming a National Merit Scholar and being invited into the Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honors Society.

Dr. Shill's research interests include risk factors for the development and progression of Parkinson's disease, the pathogenesis of essential tremor and innovative treatments for both Parkinson's and essential tremor.